A.S. Childcare Grant Fall 2020

Instructions for Undergraduate Student-Parents;

Please read the grant application carefully as some options have changed.

⇒ Fill out every section of the application and check-off the appropriate box in each section.
⇒ Attach all required documents. Double check that each section has been completely filled out prior to turning in your application to avoid a delay in processing and receiving your check.
⇒ Provide current mailing address, and check appropriate box if you would like your check mailed to you.
⇒ First time applicants ONLY: attach a copy of child(ren)’s birth certificates.
⇒ Due to the COVID-19 situation, applications for Fall 2020 can be submitted via email to NTSRC@sa.ucsb.edu. If you have concerns about sending a birth certificate over email, please let us know and we will make an alternative arrangement. Application processing will begin the morning after the application due-date.
⇒ Due to COVID-19, we are temporarily suspending the rule that the childcare provider cannot be a family member. We are also allowing grant money to be requested to cover educational expenses (such as books, art supplies, or internet access) incurred while children are being home schooled, due to COVID-related school closures. Please include on your application a brief summary of the COVID-related childcare expenses for which you are requesting grant money.

No late Applications will be accepted

*Your check will be ready for pick-up at the A.S. Ticketing Office (where you pick up bus passes) unless you request to have it mailed

*Is my check ready? Call the A.S. Ticketing Office at (805) 893-2064.

*Other questions? Email NTSRC@sa.ucsb.edu and we will be happy to help you.
